

I Have a Rendezvous with Death by Alan Seeger

Total running time: 28:23

Alan Seeger had barely passed his twenty-eighth birthday, when, charging up to the German trenches on the field of Belloy-en-Santerre, his "escouade" of the Foreign Legion was caught in a deadly flurry of machine-gun fire, and he fell, with most of his comrades, ... To his friends the loss was grievous, to literature it was—we shall never know how great, but assuredly not small.

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.
Cover picture by Bohumil Kubišta (1912). Copyright expired in U.S. Cover design by David Purdy. This design is in the public domain.

I Have a Rendezvous with Death – Alan Seeger

I Have a Rendezvous with Death – Alan Seeger